

Reading Records – WAGOLL (What a good one looks like!)

Example one: When you are short on time, quick comment and initial.

25.9.15	How Many Spots, Triceratops?	Whizzed through this time Tricky: jewels, blue, spiky, newt.
26.9.15	How Many Spots, Triceratops?	Read to Granny
27.9.15	How Many Spots, Triceratops?	Very confident. NEWT tricky
5.9.15	How Many Spots, Triceratops	NEWT right first time

Date	Book and Page Number	Remarks
02/10	The great race	He enjoyed reading the story. He made some predictions of what might happen in the race.
02/10	I LOVE YOU, Little Bear BY Claire Freedman and Gavin Scott	He needed help reading 'amongst' and 'precious'. We discussed things he likes to do with his mummy.
03/10	Buzzy Bee BY Kath Smith	He had to be reminded to sound the word out instead of guessing. He read 'follow as flower'.
04/10	The Thingamabob BY IL Sung Na	He read the story and retold the story. 'The elephant didn't know what the umbrella is used for, so he try to play, so it with it etc'.

Example two: When you have a little more time.
